Figurative language refers to the use of words or expressions that deviate from their literal interpretation to convey complex meanings, evoke imagery, or emphasize particular ideas. It is a fundamental aspect of creative and persuasive writing, enriching texts by adding depth and emotional resonance. Understanding figurative language enables students to interpret literature more profoundly and enhances their own writing skills by allowing them to express thoughts vividly.

Definition and Examples of Figurative Language

- Personification: Attributing human traits to non-human entities (e.g., "the wind whispered").

- Hyperbole: Exaggeration for emphasis (e.g., "I'm so hungry I could eat a horse").
- Idioms: Phrases with meanings different from their literal words (e.g., "break the ice").
